

Institute for Research in the Humanities

Honorary Fellowship Application Form

(Please contact IRH Director to determine your eligibility before completing this form)

Name (Last)

Name (First)

Current Address

Address valid until:

Permanent Address (if different):

Telephone:

Email Address:

Date of Birth:

Citizenship (include U.S. Residence status if applicable)

Current Institution:

Current Rank or Title:

Years in Rank:

Department:

Field(s) of Specialization or Research:

Title of Project/Book:

Length of Requested Stay (Be as complete as possible. Provide at least month and year.):

Start:

End:

Items you would like to highlight on your CV (grants, awards, fellowships):

Reference information, including name, title, institution, and email address. Letter should be emailed directly to IRH (info@irh.wisc.edu).

100 Word Abstract of Project:

Would you prefer to have an office at IRH if one is available during your fellowship?

Yes:

No:

Remember to contact IRH Director to determine your eligibility before completing this form.

Submit this completed form to IRH (info@irh.wisc.edu) with the following attachments: 1) A description of the research project, 1-4 pages (OR a grant proposal; OR book prospectus); 2) CV (include work forthcoming and in progress). All 3 attachments should be in pdf format and all file names should include your name and "Honorary Fellowship."

You should request one recommendation letter from someone familiar with your work that can speak to the contributions you would make to the IRH community: The file must be in pdf format, contain your name and "Honorary Fellowship" in the file name, and be sent directly from the recommender to IRH (info@irh.wisc.edu).

International Applicants: Also attach documentation in English of sufficient financial support, which includes for funds for travel, health insurance, and living expenses. UW-Madison's policy information for International Scholars can be found here: <https://hr.wisc.edu/international/>.