

Freedom Seekers

Stories of Black Liberation in the American Revolutionary Era and Beyond

Thursday, April 23rd
Wisconsin Historical Society, 816 State Street

Poster Exhibition: The Art of Freedom

- Learn about the Freedom Seekers project and explore stories of people who fled slavery during the Revolutionary era.
- Enjoy a complimentary spread of food and beverages.

4:00 - 5:00pm Wisconsin Historical Society Lobby

Keynote Storytelling Lecture: Freedom Seekers: Declaring Independence from Slavery during the American Revolution

Professor Gloria McCahon Whiting, E. Gordon Fox
Associate Professor of History, UW-Madison

5:00 - 6:00pm Wisconsin Historical Society Auditorium

To attend either session, please reserve your free ticket online by following this QR code or visiting go.wisc.edu/j7q5g9

This event is presented by the UW-Madison History Club and University Place by PBS Wisconsin, and it is sponsored by the Department of History, the Department of African American Studies, the Wisconsin Historical Society, the Office of the Associate Dean of Arts and Humanities, the Anonymous Fund, and the Center for the Humanities